About the firm

The firm's EU Chemicals, Environment, Sustainability Practice focuses on a wide range of regulatory compliance, litigation and enforcement matters relating to REACH/CLP, biocides, plant protection products, fertilizers, etc. as well as projects concerning packaging materials, (hazardous) waste, food, feed, (veterinary) medical devices and various other highly regulated products and industries. We are also legal counsel to consortia seeking approval of chemical substances or products at EU level and we work with scientific experts in many of our cases. In the current times of ever more societal pressure on industry to contribute to the EU's Green Deal ambitions and sustainability goals we logically also support our clients with their ESG related challenges.

VVGB is a Brussels based independent international boutique law firm composed of experienced partners and their teams who combine their expertise and strengths to provide premier quality and personalized service at competitive rates due to the boutique structure. Clients include multinational corporations, medium-sized companies, international and domestic industry associations and governments.
